

Poor little fellow! He coughs so hard he cannot sleep. That makes him weak and sickly all the next day. His brother thinks this coughing is terrible. So do we, for we know that just a few doses of will stop the cough. For sixty years it has been the standard remedy with men, women, and children for colds, coughs, and all throat and lung diseases. It contains no narcotic or poison of any kind. Be sure that you get Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Accept no cheap and worthless substitute.

HEPBURN-M'CANDLESS.

NEW YORK, April 29 .- Miss Madge McCandless, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. McCandless, of Honolulu, H. T., was married to Mr. Harry Marlin Hepburn, a lieutenant in the revenue cutter service, yesterday afternoon, by the Rev. William Morris Kincaid, of Charlotte, N. C., who formerly lived in Honolulu. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. Roy H. Chamberlain, of No. 312 West Ninety-ninth street, Miss Mary O'Brien, of Parkersburg, N. Y. was her only attendant and the best man was Mr. Hepburn Chamberlain.

BELIEVE BILL TO BE BENEFICIAL

and finance. Judging from the general sentiment of the members of the association yesterday, as disclosed by a short canvass, the association will come out strongly in favor of the pending legislation and the action of congress in placing inter-island service under the commission will be declared a wise move. The association has as yet never gone record in such a matter and any action will constitute a precedent.

The sentiment of the chamber of commerce is similar but it is probable that it will materialize in a negative manner. The status of the proposition assumes a different form when considered officially by the chamber, and it is doubtful if it will discuss it at all. The letter from McClellan has been, or will be, sent around to each of the offi-cers and trustees who will thus be given chance to form their own ideas on the matter.

J. A. Kennedy, president of the In-ter-Island Steam Navigation Company, is also a member of the board of trustees of the chamber of commerce. As the proposed legislation, notwithstanding the arguments in congress that the small carrier would be, this places him, at least, in a position that would natu-

HAWAIIAN STARS IN MUSICAL COMEDY

Hawaiian entertainers seem to have come into their own as far as the theater-going public of the mainland is concerned. Dramatic writers in all parts of the country have expressed their appreciation of the efforts of those who hail from these Islands and now a Chicago critic credits much of the success of Richard Carle's new play, "The Echo," to the efforts of Toots Paka and her associates.

The Chicago correspondent of the New York Telegraph after reviewing

New York Telegraph after reviewing the work of a number of those in the caste, concludes with the remarks: "And last, but not least, Toots Paka does the 'hulahula."

"A few words about this Toots person," continues the critic. "She comes from the sun-kissed islands of Hawaii, or thereabouts, and is the color of case an lait-and very good looking. Hawaii, or thereabouts, and is the color of eafe au lait—and very good looking, mark you. Recently, with two male islanders, she has been taking the jumps on the Morris vaudeville circuit, but Mr. Dillingham saw that she and her friends were too good to waste on the vaudevillians, and therefore, here she is. There is no doubt about it, this South South South is the hit of the vince.

South Sea trio is the hit of the piece. "They stroll in without any particumerry villagers in the second act, looking as if they had just stepped out of a story by Robert Louis Stevenson or Jack London, with flowered garlands about their necks, dressed in the careless pajama fashion that prevails on the slopes of Mauna Kilanea. "They sing outlandish ditties at first to a rhythm that is like patting juba; then one of the fellows plays a weird solo on his zither and follows it with a Hawaiian version of 'The Rosary.' It's good music, too, with what one of our leading high-brows calls a 'fine barbaric thrill,' and it makes the harmonies of the plantation darky sound like the caterwauling of darky sound like the caterwauling of Garay sound like the caterwaiting of Sir Thomas on the back fence. Last of all, Miss Toots gives her 'bulahula,' which is fascinating if not complicat-ed. Without violating the proprieties in any way it imparts a hint of torrid tropical doings by the light of the

SET CORNERSTONE OF KAPAHULU MISSION

On Sunday afternoon the cornerstone of the new Kapahulu Mission of the Protestant Episcopal Church was laid, Bishop Henry Bond Restarick officiating, assisted by Canon Simpson. The stone was placed by Mrs. Alexander Karratti, one of the moving spirits in the establishment of the mission in Kapahulu district. A choir was present and a large number of parishioners attended. The services were impressive. W. R. Castle, who gave the mission people a ten years' lease at $1 rental per year, was also among those interested in the establishment of the little mission. guilty in police court was presented to the spectators there yesterday when Murakami, captured at Waimanalo Sunday right, and be "never did it." After the police raided the gang about seven o clock that evening, they had to wait several hours while ball was secured and during that time the banker stated emphatically three times than fast and is corroborated by the two men with him.

De Mello was struck by one of the head lamps, which was itself twisted around almost incredibly, interfering with the subsequent steering of the machine. The injuries sustained by the machine and the coadition of its victim's body hardly sllows any other conclusion, in the opinion of the police, except that Cluney was doing what chanfleurs do at that spoi—going at almost full speed.

John do Mello was forty-cight years old, and a pitiful phase of the tragedy is that he leaves a widow and soresichildren. He was a laborar, and his family would probably be almost destitute if it was not for the fact that he was a manther of the Ses Antonio Society, which will provide for them analy. The victim was born on the island of baint Michael, and has long bous a resident of flawnit. He had the reportation of being industrious and hunes!

An impost will he held over the remains testay.
